

PARENT ACTION CONFERENCE 2015

You are invited to develop a PARENT ACTION PLAN
for NYC Public Schools for the 2015-16 school year

Sat., November 7th

9 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

at

PS 133

611 Baltic Street - Brooklyn

at the corner of 4th Avenue

(Near the D, N, R, B, Q, 2, 3, 4 trains & the B103 bus)

Participate in Workshops and help create an ACTION PLAN for:

- Alleviating School Overcrowding
- Organizing Public School Parents for Action
- Reducing Class Size
- Changing Mayoral Control
- Advocating For Children With Special Needs
- Opting Out Of Testing & The Common Core
- Empowering School Leadership Teams
- Influencing The Panel For Educational Policy
- Improving Diversity In Our Schools
- Protecting Your Child's Privacy

Special Guest Speakers:

Public Advocate

LETITIA JAMES

and

Chair of the NYC Council
Education Committee,

DANNY DROMM

FREE CHILDCARE

(for children over 4) and Lunch provided.

REGISTER TODAY

for the

PARENT ACTION CONFERENCE 2015

on-line at: <http://bit.ly/1KIC487>

- or -

<http://nycpublicschoolparents.blogspot.com/2015/10/register-to-day-for-our-parent-action.html>

Co-sponsored by:

Class Size Matters, NYC KidsPAC, Education Council Consortium, and Community Education
Council District 15